

Residency Training Program Registration Form
for Small Animal Internal Medicine

1. Date of application

2. Location of sponsoring institution

Name:

Address:

Phone:

3. Program Supervisor' name, title and email

(The Program Supervisor must be an active AiCVIM Diplomate)

Name:

Title:

Email:

4. Clinical caseload information (this information should reflect the caseload of the prior 12 months)

Total SAIM caseload (only new patient) per year:

Number of endoscopic examinations per year

GI:

Bronchoscopy:

Rhinocopy:

Cystoscopy:

5. How many residents do you recruit for this application?

6. List residents currently participating in your training program.

Resident Name	Start Date(mm/dd/yyyy)	End Date(mm/dd/yyyy)

7. Please provide the structure of the training program to include (but not limited to): the length and number of clinical rotations per year; distribution of time allocated for research, exam preparation, and vacation.

	Year 1 Weeks	Year 2 Weeks	Year 3 Weeks	Total Weeks	On- or Off-site?
Internal Medicine, Supervised by Program Supervisor (PS), Minimum of 80 weeks
Internal Medicine
Internal Medicine, Supervised by Diplomate other than PS, Minimum of 16 weeks
Internal Medicine
Additional Diplomate Supervised Rotations, Minimum of 9 weeks
Cardiology
Neurology
Oncology
Diagnostic facility, Supervised by Diplomate, Minimum of 1 week (40 hours) each
Radiology
Ultrasound
Clinical pathology
Additional time
Studying
Vacation
Total

8. List of Supporting Diplomates

*Pre-approval is required for off-site personnel.

Name & Signature	Specialty	Diplomate	On-/Off-site
Printed name: Signature:

9. Please place a check mark in the boxes below after you read following sentences to confirm the program you submit satisfies the requirement.

- Does your program provide enough time (minimum 80 hours/3 years) for journal club to train residents for critical review of literature?
- Does your program provide enough time for residents to pursue research activity for publication requirement?
- Does your program support residents to give a formal presentation at a conference at least once per year during the residency training program?
- Does each resident have at least 4 weeks protected and uninterrupted study time prior to the general exam and 4 weeks protected and uninterrupted study time prior to the Specialty Examination over the 3 years?
- Does each resident in your program take the primary role in patient management, including patient receiving, diagnostics, case management and decision making, client communication, case follow-up, and communication with referral veterinarians?
- Is case management directly supervised and reviewed by a Diplomate of the AiCVIM?